HOW TO SET UP

CENTER OF TABLE:

Seder Plate, Candles and Matza.

3 Matzo crackers stacked on a large white napkin (or white piece of fabric).

An actual seder plate to place items on (or use a regular plate).

6 ITEMS ON SEDER PLATE:

One romaine lettuce leaf with horseradish, haroset, roasted egg, parsley and salt water in bowl, lamb bone, treats for kids.

FOOD:

Everyone can eat/drink during the scripture reading.

SEATING:

Everyone needs to be sitting at a table with a place setting and 2 glasses, one for water and one for juice. All items to eat during the reading will need to be within everyone's reach.

WHAT DOES IT MEAN?

HAROSET:

Resembles the mortar, or the type of labor that Israel was subjected to by the Egyptians, foreshadowing the reminder that you were once a captive to the purposes of the enemy.

ROASTED EGG:

The reminder of the covenant that God would bring Israel into new life again, foreshadowing the promise that God would send a messiah to bring new life to all people.
(Illustrative purposes, not for eating)

PARSLEY & SALT WATER:

A reminder of the tears cried when under oppression. This foreshadows the pain of life before we receive freedom in Christ.

LAMB BONE:

Symbolizing the blood of the lamb in the shape of a cross on the doorpost that instructed death to Passover the homes of the Israelites, foreshadowing the life of every believer in Christ who is delivered from death by his blood. (You can get from a butcher, order online or even buy from a pet store. Only for illustrative purposes.)

ROMAINE LETTUCE & HORSERADISH:

The bitter herbs that remind us of the bitterness of physical slavery foreshadowing the bitterness of a life captive to sin.
